ELECTION—TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5TH.

The Will of the Majority or of the Minority—Which Shall It Be?

Rabelais was the prince of satirists. Not always readable, he never lacks in point. He tells us in one place of the Abbey of the Thelemites, over whose door was written the legend "Fay ce que voudras." This, being somewhat freely rendered, means "Do as you d— please."

Is it possible that there are those who would apply the rule of the Thelemites to the Democratic party? Our successes have been won by a continual sacrifice of personal preferences and prejudices to the good of the country. In that faith we have cast out devils, and driven them out of our borders. Our successes can only be retained as they were won. On every side we have demonstration of the truth of this fact. The party, when it moves, must move as one man. If it moves in fragments, the enemy will out number the separate detachments and overwhelm them. The word of command must be implicitly obeyed when given, and the authority must be respected. That authority must lie in the majority or in the minority. There is no other alternative. Turn it as you will there is no other resource. If the majority governs, we must follow the broad principle on which the Republican form of Government is based. If the majority governs, the choice of the party requires no help from hostile hands. If the minority is to govern, their candidate must triumph by the suffrages of men and of a party whom we have denounced and scourged from power and against the will of our own party. The principle requires no demonstration. Either the voice of a majority or of a minority must govern our party councils. There is no middle course. Which is right?

Pitched his Tent Toward Sodom.

We are told in the book of books that when Lot was wearied of living in company with father Abraham he looked out for what he esteemed a better pasture. He chose the valley of the Jordan and pitched his tent toward Sodom. We all know the result, and how he at last got into Sodom and finally escaped the city which destroyed that wicked city only by the skin of his teeth. For years Josiah Turner has been threatening and hankering to divide himself from the good old Democratic party. He has been casting his eyes toward the valley of the Radical Jordan many years. With difficulty he was restrained from doing four years ago what he is doing now. Two years ago he pitched his tent towards Sodom and declared himself an independent candidate for Governor against Gov. Vance. Lowering his pretensions, however, he was forced to content himself with being beaten as a semi-Radical candidate for the Senate by Hon. John W. Graham by an overwhelming vote. Now, however, he has finally got into Sodom and bears the brand of its endorsement and recognition of him as a fellow citizen. It is more than doubtful if he ever escape thence, and should he be saved, it will be even so as by fire. He has found that the way of the transgressor is hard and that the political Jordan is a very hard road to travel.

LORD LYTON seems to have entered vigorously upon preparations for bringing Shere Ali to terms, and British officers connected with India regiments are being rapidly called away from the delights of London life to take a taste of "roughing it in the bush." It will be interesting to observe whether the author of "Lucille" and other ringing English verse; in his capacity of Viceroy of India, is equal to the task of governing that imperial realm and at the same time direct a perplexing war of annexation.

THE Hong Kong Daily Press is wondering over the "new departure from the customs of his country" taken by his Excellency, the Chinese Minister, at his recent entertainment in London, in allowing his wife to be present, and to do honors as hostess. What will be said in China, where women are considered of little moment, socially, and where they are kept strictly secluded from public inspection?

ARE Judge Merrimon's friends in favor of the majority or of the minority governing? No answer expected.

COL. John R. Winston, National Candidate for Congress, in the 5th District is said to have withdrawn. There could from the first be little doubt that his patriotism would cause him to do so as soon as he could be made to see that the only effect of his candidacy would be to aid, and possibly elect, the carpet bagger Tourgee.

M. GAMBITTA's tour in France is described as being a continued series of rejoicings. It is estimated that at Valence 20,000 persons appeared in the streets to welcome him; and as he was proceeding up the Rhone from Lyons to Valence he was repeatedly cheered by persons assembled on the banks. He is said to have addressed an audience of 10,000 at Romans.

SOME of our State exchanges abound with notices to delinquent subscribers to settle up. It is a call which common honesty requires should be heeded.

Gov. Hendricks has been invited to the Weldon Fair and it is thought will attend.

Gold has taken a sharp upward turn in New York.

The Tax on Tobacco.

Cincinnati Commercial.

The Hon. Milton Saylor, in a speech made at Cincinnati, truthfully said regarding the unjust tax on tobacco:

"Our tobacco men have been clamoring for relief because the enormous burden of taxation imposed upon this article is really destroying the industry, and thousands of acres that have heretofore been cultivated in this way are no longer so cultivated, because the burdens and restrictions imposed are such that the real value of the article when produced is not equal to the cost of the capital and labor necessary for the production; and when the owner of the broad acres ceases to produce, of course he ceases to employ labor; and when he ceases to employ labor, of course there is an addition to the enforced idleness of the country. But not only so. There is a corresponding depression in the business of manufacturing tobacco, and the great tobacco establishments of our city have been finding it necessary under these burdens to constantly diminish the amount of their business, and have been, from time to time, lessening the number of their employees, thus again adding to the number of idle men who stand about our streets, and who are idle, not from choice, but from necessity. It is a sad state of affairs, I believe, of all those engaged in this business in the city of Cincinnati, and it is their unanimous opinion that this interest cannot endure this enormous burden, and that unless some relief comes to them their business will be destroyed or most seriously affected."

Hendricks Comes up Smiling.

Philadelphia Times.

Governor Hendricks seems to be about the only survivor of the Democratic Presidential candidates in the battle of yesterday. Tilden was unhorsed in the Democratic State Committee; Thurman has lost his State, but Hendricks comes up smiling in a special dispatch to the Times, telling how his victory of the Democratic army has won the hoosier State by an increased majority.

An old physician, retired from practice, had placed in his hands by an East Indian missionary the formula of a simple, reliable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, and a positive radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints. He had tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, and he felt that he had made it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive, he will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this simple, reliable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, and a positive radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints. A Health-Destroying Vapor. Is generated by the action of the sun's rays upon damp decaying vegetation, stagnant pools of water, and lying tracts of marshy ground. It is the cause of the most virulent type of malaria, and is the most common cause of the disease. It may be annihilated by the ordinary remedies employed to overcome them. The true antidote to the effects of malaria is in immediate demand wherever malarious conditions exist. A wine glassful of this potent and pure preparation, taken three times a day, is the best possible preventive for encountering a malarious atmosphere, regulating the liver, and invigorating the stomach.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Hotels crowded.

—Revenue collections yesterday was $457.35.

—The best of order prevailed in the city yesterday.

—The Charlotte military companies will arrive here early tomorrow morning.

—The streets grew sad with the gray and blossomed with the plumes yesterday.

—Judging from the large crowd in the city last evening, the Fair is already a success.

—The trial of the Chapel Hill burglars will come off at Hillsboro during the present week.

—Joe Horton, colored, from Little River township, was on yesterday committed to jail on a charge of larceny.

—The new schedule on the Statesville Railroad went into effect yesterday. The train leaves Charlotte at 4 A. M., and returning arrives there at 4:30 P. M.

—The mayor had a very slim docket yesterday morning. The only case disposed of was that of Balaam Williams, colored, who was charged with larceny. The accused was sent on to the Criminal Court.

—The suit of Balser and Tack against the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company is set for trial before Judge Bond, at Greensboro, today. This is an important case, $800,000 being involved.

—The funeral of the colored break-man, Alexander Hicks, who was run over by a train at the depot Friday night, took place Sunday afternoon.

The deceased was a member of the Oak

C. Blues, and the colored companies honored him with a military funeral.

—The parade yesterday of the 1st Regiment, Col. Hancock commanding, was witnessed by a good many of our citizens. At the end of the Elm City Silver Cornet Band marched down the line playing a lively quickstep in an excellent manner. Considering that it was the first battalion parade for several of the companies, the drilling was good, particularly the manual of arms.

Tucker Hall.

This hall was well filled last night by a select and appreciative audience.

"Martiana," the beautiful 3 act operatic drama, was presented by the Templeton Star Alliance in a manner that has never been surpassed on our stage. Alice Vane as "Martiana" delighted the audience with her delightful voice and excellent conception of the character. Pay Templeton as "Lazarillo" was excellent; but it was in the afterpiece, "Amice," presented by John Templeton that she showed the compass and cultivation of her voice, charming her audience with her selections and ballads.

Mr. John Templeton, the comedian, appeared as Don Cesar in "Martiana," and was in his happiest vein. In the after-piece his every word and motion drew rears of laughter from the audience.

Miss Nellie Stanwood was in excellent voice and received an encore.

The Templetons are ably supported by Miss Heywood and Messrs. Barton

Adams, Bird, Fuller, Reynolds and Rice.

The costumes of this troupe are new and rich.

for to-night's entertainment—at which time the two Orphanas with Alice Vane as the Orphan and John Templeton as Pierre, will be present—a pleasant entertainment.

A. Crech, Esq.

The advertisement of this substantial house appears this morning. Mr.

Crech is one of the leading business men of the State, his public spirit and generous heart, together with his industry and sound judgment, have placed him in a position where he commands the patronage and esteem of the public. His success as a merchant is no less than any in the city.

Another Murder Trial in Wayne.

The trial of Lewis Taylor, colored, for the murder of a man named William Etheridge, began at Goldsboro yesterday before Judge McKoy.

The murder was committed several months ago, but the trial creates a good deal of excitement, as it was one of the most atrocious crimes ever committed in the State. Hon. W. T. Dorrell and Son appear for the defense, and Capt. Swift Galloway, the talented solicitor of the Second District, John P. Wooten, prosecute.

Almost a Fire.

The elegant residence of Major A.

M. Lewis, yesterday caught fire and sparks from the chimney and narrowly escaped entire destruction, requiring the efforts of a number of persons to quell the flames.

A Sharp Banker.

We have all heard of Rothschild's grand coup after Waterloo on the London Stock Exchange. It has been imitated on a smaller yet well known scale by Mr. Zarly, the well known banker of Constantinople, who could not have done a smarter stroke if he had sprung from a concentrated essence of Yankee stock. The morning after the signature of the private Anglo-Turkish treaty of the cessation of Cyprus he dispatched one of his most trusted employees to Cyprus with sealed orders. On opening them the agent found that, like Monte Christo, he had "unlimited credit" to buy up everything he could find worth buying. He spent $200,000 in purchasing all he could lay hands on—houses, cultivated lands, shops, cattle, etc. The people were frightened hard up, and ready money had a wonderfully persuasive effect. To-day this property is worth $1,500,000, and if Mrs. Zarly were to have a good time in Paris this winter, why—

Two Kinds of Buns.

Brooklyn Union, rep.

There are Buns and Buns. Ben Butler is a growler of one kind, and Ben Hill is a growler of another kind. It takes a column and a half of the Herald's fine type for Ben Hill to sufficiently express his venom against President Hayes and his administration. If there are very conservative republicans who think the President has odd-ed too much to the South, it may comfort them to know that Mr. Hill does not appear to have been in the least coddled. His accusations that the President copies his position by fraud and crime reads comically under the electric light the Tribune throws on that question.
